“I hesitated to call GreenPath about my debt, embarrassed as I was an employee of a credit union that partners with GreenPath. I needed the sanity and the ability to get help and put my insecurities aside. I am so glad I called.”

...so glad I called.

“After I connected with GreenPath about my debt, I immediately felt relief that I made the right decision and that I was going to be OK. There was HELP and I did not need to face it alone.”

“Since connecting with the GreenPath counselor, I am no longer stressing about money. I am honest with the family when we cannot do or buy something. I am teaching my kids to consider the need and the want is of things they want to buy.”
